CLIMATE JUSTICE GRANTS

Despite the emergency of climate change, climate justice activists and communities are now facing growing denial of climate change, and the stigmatization, demonization, and criminalization of climate movements worldwide.

Het Actiefonds responds by offering the Climate Justice Grants: seed funding for movement building to frontline grassroots activists within the climate justice movement.

THE CLIMATE JUSTICE GRANTS

What do we offer?

Seed grants for movement building to frontline climate justice activists & groups

Individual grants of maximum €2500

New calls for applications every quarter (3 months)

One grant per group per year

We fund movement building activities that aim at:

- Creating awareness on your issue
- Strengthening political formation and alignment
- Strengthening the capacity of movement organizational structures
- Mobilizing and training individuals and collectives for direct action
- Building agendas, strategies and tactics for the climate movement
- Forming strategic alliances and cross-movement learning
- Building defence strategies against attacks (by governments, companies, media, etc.)
- Building resilience, recovery and care strategies for the movement

ELEGIBILITY CRITERIA

✓ We fund

Projects that formulate a coherent and clear strategy aimed at movement building for climate justice

Grassroots activist groups that strive for a sustainable and socially just world

Politically controversial and radical projects and groups that have difficulty finding funding elsewhere

Projects with a total budget of less than €20,000

We have a strong preference for organizations with an income of less than €100,000 per year

✗ We do not fund

Groups that try to exclude other progressive movements

Groups that have access to larger funding sources and to institutional funders

Political parties or religious organizations

Humanitarian projects, healthcare or emergency aid projects

Micro-credit programs or income generating projects

Structural organizational costs, e.g., wages, rental costs not tied to specific activities

Requests submitted through third parties; we want to cooperate directly with the groups we support

ABOUT HET ACTIEFONDS

We are a revolutionary fund that redistributes power and resources to progressive grassroots activists that fight for a world without injustice and exploitation through direct actions, since 1968.

Het Actiefonds is run by activists, for activists.
